

ScHoolboy Q, Man Of The Year

Bro, I see girls everywhere
Hands, hands in the air
It's a party over here
Shake it for the man of the year
Man of the year
Man of the bounce
Bro, I see girls everywhere
Hands, hands in the air
It's a party over here
Shake it for the man of the year
Man of the year
Man of the bounce
Bro, I see girls everywhere
Hands, hands in the air
It's a party over here
Shake it for the man of the year
Man of the year
Man of the bounce

Bounce, bounce, bounce
Bounce, bounce, bounce

Yeah, home of the party in the party
In the land of the Gs
Please let a player breathe
Take the top down for the breeze
Burnt lips, got life selling E
Peace, love, enemies
Homie, I ain't come for the beef
You ain't know I'm player of the week?
Player of the week
Homie, I'm the life of the
Bump that this shit, gotta eat
Bounce for the crown
You be hating and I still hold it down
When you 'round, man, the girls never lounge
Man, I heard you a hound
Bro man, I still put it down
Still put it down and vibe to the sound
Yeah, I'm the rich player now
I'm the talk of the town
Man, I might run 'em out
Go south of the border
Down to the floor

Bounce, bounce, bounce

Bro, I see girls everywhere
Hands, hands in the air
It's a party over here
Shake it for the man of the year
Man of the year
Man of the bounce
Hands, hands in the air
It's a party over here
Shake it for the man of the year
Man of the year
Man of the bounce
It's a party over here
Shake it for the man of the year
Man of the year

Man of the bounce

Bounce, bounce, bounce

Home of the dribble on the curb
Jump shots, everything occurred
What, you fly to a bird?
Homie, I could pitch you a curb
Let this real stuff occur
Make mills from a verse
Watch me cop a crib in the 'burbs
Homie, you ain't said nothing but a word
Tell you chill for your nerves
Home of the paid on the 1st
Then probably going broke by the 3rd
Bounce for the crown
Fast forward, getting real, tell me now
Every dog need a cat to meow every once in a while
I see hands in the crowds
See whites, blacks jumping around, jumping around
Everything bounce, bounce from the ground
Hype from the sound
This verse right from the morgue
Down from the floor

Bounce, bounce, bounce

Bro, I see girls everywhere
Hands, hands in the air
It's a party over here
Shake it for the man of the year
Man of the year
Man of the bounce
Bro, I see girls everywhere
Hands, hands in the air
It's a party over here
Shake it for the man of the year
Man of the year
Man of the bounce
Bro, I see girls everywhere
It's a party over here
Shake it for the man of the year
Man of the year
Man of the bounce

Bounce, bounce, bounce
Bounce, bounce, bounce
