

Scoffers, Full of night

We don't want to talk about your ex, your job and your personal life

We don't want to see you sad to see you sad when you lay on your bed

we want to make you laugh to see your smile, to dance whole night and we want to watch you smile to hear you laugh, to dance whole night

the night is full of us
and we're full of night
we're full of night

are you fool or are you blind?

you want to set this place on fire but it's fireproof

and make this fucking worlds collide but there's good in you

The god is never on your side you said he's a liar

until you cross the blurred line i'm gonna wait for you

are you fool or are you blind?
