

Scoffers, Let it go

I know I`m not trying my best and maybe I`m better than the rest I` not sure if I`m willing to fight I feel low and that`s no lie you have to know I`ve got to let it go o.. Let it go

When you walk away
I want to ask you why but you never tell

All your sorrow it drags me down but you never talk too loud

You are the one that stands out from the crowd
The crowd which surrounds me

I`ve got nowhere else to go I see my footprints on the floor if you`re in just let me know I will never let you go I feel the fire in my lungs
I hear the silence of my ghost I stick to those I love the most I will never let them go
