

Scream Maker, 700

Can you remember the times we had
'cause I remember, girl
Feelings we shared were so true
But time has stained them well

Now our lives are ships that sail
Completely different way
Funny to think that once we were
Holding the same helm

I don't regret and you should not
It's life that's how it goes
But maybe not everything is done
Not all is lost

Deep inside of you
Deep inside of me
We remember all

Seven hundred days
Seven hundred night
It was so ok
It was so alright
Best of times I had
In my whole lifetime
Seven hundred days
Seven hundred night
With you

Would you be happy to sail again
With such a guy like me
See I have changed my dreams have changed
But you still live in me

Deep inside of you
Deep inside of me
We remember all

Seven hundred days
Seven hundred night
It was so ok
It was so alright
Best of times I had
In my whole lifetime
Seven hundred days
Seven hundred night
With you
