

Scream Maker, All my Life

Lady I feel fine
You know that I don't mind
Go on and live your life
'Cause maybe
When it's time
You understand that I
Was all you've ever had
We are through
It is too late
To bring that to life

No more lies
No more fear
So many others there
Wait for me

I will today change all my life change forever
Forever and ever
I'm ready to go (He's ready to go!)
I will today change all my life change forever
Forever and ever
Let's start this show

Waiting made me waiting
Made me look so small
When begging for your love
The pleasure won't erase
The moments of despair
The times you gave me pain
Now I leave you
It is too late
To bring that to life

No more lies...
I will today change all my life change forever...
