

Scream Maker, Foolin'

I was kept away from the truth
Your eyes were always dry
Did you lie when you smiled
I feel you lied all the time
So many words you never said
What the hell were you thinking

While lying in my bed
I know what you really are
Get out of my head!
Get out of my head!

(ref.)
You were foolin' me
Zero sympathy
Then I couldn't see
Now I can't believe

Sitting here and wondering if I
Could repeat such mistake
Will it happen again
But hey you're one of a kind
It's so wrong I still have this feeling my will is not strong
You are and I'm ruined I cannot stay cold
So don't make me crawl
Get out of my head, get out of my head
Again and again! Repeating to myself!

(ref.) You were...

But before you feel satisfied
And tell all of your friends
I was a naive guy
I've got a message for you
You know what? You're gonna be surprised what I managed to hide
I've still got my own secret that makes me feel fine
That you were not the only one
Get out of my head...

(ref.) You were...

You're the devil in the woman skin / You're the source of every deadly sin / Goddess straight from Hell
