

Scream Maker, Never Say Never

All worries walked away
As I turned 'n' reached for you
Road open and I'm ready
I've got nothing to lose

The strenght that you gave me
I'm sure it won't run out
'Cause now I know – I know that there is more
Much more to be found

Never
Never say never
Our life has just begun
And this is up to us
To make this life worthwhile
Just have to try
Oh just try...

Lies and pain and chaos
We see it everyday
But I have got the shelter
With you it's All ok

Never
Never say never...

Our journey is not over
The brave ones
The brave ones will survive

Never
Never say never.../x4
