

Screaming Monkey Boner, Neurotheology

Hard wired heads plugged into a higher power
Unified deity flowing from the poppy flower
Fuels of creation of answers to the desperate
Questions raised since the dawn of man
Who are we and why are we here?
Traveling in circles never getting any nearer
Our thoughts erased by Psilocyben
Lost in a world of hallucination

How...hear the ape man screaming
Now....give me the answers to
How...hear the ape man screaming
Now....give me the answers to

Who came first the leader or the follower
The meaning of life has never seemed hollower
We built our beliefs to cleanse our impurities
We built our beliefs to mask our insecurities
The flaw in the system is that
We hold in reverence what we can not see
Our thoughts erased by Psilocyben
Lost in a world of hallucination

How...hear the ape man screaming
Now....give me the answers to
How...hear the ape man screaming
Now....give me the answers to

Why are we slaves to our own
Sense of well-being?

Everyday I wake up still alive on this miserable fucking planet and ask myself the same set of ques
