

Screaming Trees, Time Speaks Her Golden Tongue

Time speaks with golden words
(You watch them burn)
When there's nothing to be heard
Hides behind the stars
Silver in the night
(She can't be right)
Lies in the coming light
She speaks with diamonds in their eyes
She won't
Time living with today
(Who is to say)
In a lonely way
She whispers never a surprise
She won't tell you why
Time speaks her golden tongue
(Nowhere to run)
And when everything is done
She lies to no one
Never found her here
(Her words so clear)
She lives within us here
She speaks with diamonds in their eyes
She won't tell you why
