

Screw, My Creazy Life

Nothing's really expected
Opposed and underrated
But we'll be over as potentially as we can
Can we amend and do this thing together
For life is something simple
Its the hope that springs again
Who's gonna be the first to hold onto their stone
Admit they are mistaken leave sin alone
Who's gonna be the last after the stone cold cast
To leave friends behind to much to ask
Why can't you see whats coming?
Thinking of saying something
Sometimes a shock will find perspectives
In ourselves
Pretentious oversights
I can see it every night
Underlying values occuying too much time
Who's gonna be the first to hold onto their stone
Admit they are mistaken leave sin alone
Who's gonna be the last after the stone cold cast
To leave friends behind to much to ask
What we do says where that we go
And friends can be so many real so hard if any
