

Seapony, What You Wanted

You've been waiting for something you've forgotten,
You've been waiting for something that you wanted
So long,
You're too old now.

I was at the bottom, you were standing still.
Waiting in the garden the flood of the new.
So long,
You're too old now.

Every day that go, that slip away,
Every day we will go by.
Try to save someone from my mistake,
Try to save someone like you.

You've been waiting for something you've forgotten
You've been waiting for something that you wanted
So long,
You're too old now.

So long, you're too old now.
