

Sebastian Bach, Live And Die

Where do we fit in a world that sells us lies?
It's so hard to be your perfect kind
Truth is vital
yes that's what's inside
Cover yourself
You yourself deny
Like stars sky high we live and die
Free your body, your soul, your mind
Where do I fit in a world that sells me lies?
It's so hard to be
your perfect kind
Like stars sky high we live and die
Free your body, your soul, your mind
Like stars sky high we live and die
Free your body, your soul, your mind
Blessed with light and showered in dark
While we're here we'll make our mark
Blessed with light and scarred by pain
Roll the dice begin again
Don't be afraid to win or lose
The money stays,
but the pain stays with you
We are showered in dark
And scarred by the pain
Begin again
Like stars sky high we live and die
Free your body, your soul, your mind
Like stars sky high we live and die
Free your body, your soul, your mind
Who cares about death?
Right now I'm alive
My two feet upon this earth
Under her skies
