

Secret Illusion, Neverland

All the things I feel inside
All my fears when worlds collide
Only you can understand what am I and who I am

Ascending forever
Descending together
United by fate
Destined to walk the same road

Now take my hand, fly with me
I will guide you to see
what's inside of my heart
This is my own Neverland
No one enters, none leaves
Only you hold the key

A flaming anger burns in me for the world we're living in
This heavy burden of despair
Only you can help me bare

Ascending forever
Descending together
United by fate
Destined to walk the same road

Now take my hand, fly with me
I will guide you to see
what's inside of my heart
This is my own Neverland
No one enters, none leaves
Only you can put my mind at ease
