Secret Illusion, Neverland

All the things I feel inside All my fears when worlds collide Only you can understand what am I and who I am

Ascending forever
Descending together
United by fate
Destined to walk the same road

Now take my hand, fly with me I will guide you to see what's inside of my heart This is my own Neverland No one enters, none leaves Only you hold the key

A flaming anger burns in me for the world we're living in This heavy burden of despair Only you can help me bare

Ascending forever
Descending together
United by fate
Destined to walk the same road

Now take my hand, fly with me I will guide you to see what's inside of my heart This is my own Neverland No one enters, none leaves Only you can put my mind at ease
