

Selah Sue, Always Home

My eyes see the rest of the way
Long before I know
The secret of my expectations
And they stole all this feelings
And they know where I came from

Where do I go when stars go blue?
By my eyes see the rest of the way
Long before I know
The secret of my all
This broken mind
This broken dreams
Maybe I'll be lonely after I go
Meet me at the only, only the places that we know
With you I'm always home

My heartbeats every harder than before
This feelings is pure excitation
It's starts all this feelings
And all know where I came from
This broken mind
This broken dreams
Maybe I'll be lonely after I go
Meet me at the only, only the places that we know
With you I'm always home

You're the only place I know
When I have nowhere left to go
Maybe I'll be lonely after I go
Meet me at the only, only the places that we know
With you I'm always home
Maybe I'll be lonely after I go
Meet me at the only, only places that we know
With you I'm always home
