

Selah Sue, Black Part Love

You freeze and I try to make
You freeze and I try to make you warm cause
You always got what it takes to act like a far ass clown but I, I know better then that I know you're away too long

I see I know about your background
It was easy I know for sure
But that's no reason to crack its in the best to let it go Just be who you are and who you're supposed to be

It's about listen gi-irl
Learn how to love yourself again ye-ay
Then just fly out gi-irl
Cause you're worth it,
You're worth it

Cause you're worth it

You fell and I try to get
You fell and I try to get you up, cause
When things don?t work ou-out oh no
You shut yourself up but it holds you struck, but that is not the way it works,
That?s not the way it works

And I know that it's easy
It's easy to hate yourself but,
you must chill out
Cause the black parts need to be loved as well

Oh ye-a
The black parts need to be loved as well

It's about listen gi-irl
Learn how to love yourself again ye-ay
Then just fly out gi-irl
Cause you're worth it,
Cause you're worth it

Cause you're worth it

Listen girl,
Listen gi-irl o-oh ye
Listen girl,
Listen gi-irl o-oh ye

It's about listen gi-irl
Learn how to love yourself again ye-ay
Then just fly out gi-irl
Cause you're worth it,
You're worth it

I know, one day
I know, one day
I know that one day you got it
