

Selena Gomez, A Sweeter Place (feat. Kid Cudi)

is there a place where I can hide away
red lips, French-kiss
my worries all away
there must be a sweeter place\
we can sugar-coat the taste
sweeter place
there must be a sweeter place

Place where I can
you really wanna know where I've been all this time so let me tell ya
got 2 feet on the ground and felt what ral is like what it was like
living
out of the scene
out in the wild
learning to breathe
up in the crowds
I can't believe
I can be loud
holding hands whit the darkness and knowing my heart is allowed allowed

is there a place where I can hide away
red lips, French-kiss
we can sugar-coat the taste
sweeter place

Place where I can

as I fantasize
so much to see
I am in paradise

it seem s I m new inside
deep deem, in me
I go now baby
born to fly

now see how could it be
we well find our way
we'll find the things we seek

you see I am mesmerized
a place that's juust for me and I am cuttin' ties
goodbye

having no fear
head is clear
a sweeter place

my sweeter place
