

Selena Gomez, Cut You Off

pull up to the mirror
staring at my face
gotta chop-chop all the extra weight I've been carrying it for 14-hundred and sixty days gotta /3x
clean my slate

and i might as well just tell you while I'm drunk the truth is that i think I've had enough professionally messing whit my trus how could I confuse that shit for love

so I gotta get you out my head now I just cut you off
you out my head now
I just cut you off
when I am without you
I don't overthink it, ,I just carry on
get you my head now

i imagine all the endless places i could know if I – drop drop an d I let you go all the possibilities
I got from head to toe they'd /3x
start to show

get you my head now
gotta /3x
