

Selena Gomez, Kinda Crazy

hey
you started out sweeter than hard candy words were like licorice to the taste but slow , all the sugar it went to waste
went to waste

oh
you started getting funny whit no jokes I started seeing through you like a ghost and now I am pretty sure I can't take no more

I think you're kinda crazy
and not the good kind baby cause you're acting super shady
you know it
been dodging phone calls lately but still texting me baby
you been lying just for fun
luckily no damage done
but now I see you're kinda crazy

hey,
you're the one who started talking to me made the move, asked to be your babe and now you're treating me like I am insane you're insane
