

Self, With You Somehow

It's out of a dream
I'm alone right now
With you somehow
Now we can come clean
Such a torrid past
Alone at last

And nothing can break me
From stringing this along
And nothing can save me
From laying it on
Til you answer me

Cause I'm alone right now with you somehow

Now what in the world are you striving for
I can't be sure
Where's the sweet little girl
I once knew well
I wish time would tell

And nothing can break me
From stringing this along
What have you done lately
Besides haunting songs
Won't you answer me

Cause I'm alone right now with you somehow
I'm alone right now with you somehow
I'm alone right now with you somehow

I'll work my fingers til they bleed
I want to love you
I can't leave you long enough
To know you're out of my league

And nothing can break me
From stringing this along
And nothing can save me
From laying it on
And nothing can break me
What have you done lately
Besides haunting songs
Won't you answer me

Cause I'm alone right now with you somehow
I'm alone right now with you somehow
I'm alone right now with you somehow
