

Sepultura, Repeating The Horror

What is this sickness that sit's there down inside Walking in bullshit, nothing seems quite right

I want redemption!

Standing still, open doors
Feeling pain, can not move Feeling scared, standing still Better start something,
better then nothing,
can't go on seeing,
all of these horrors

Eye's wide open can't keep the shut, from this horrer of the shame Can feel the pain, lifes fucked up, when we witness our horrers Real close up

Better start something,
better then nothing
Can't go on seeing,
all of these horrers
