Sesame Street, Born To Add (1995)

When we're roamin' the streets and we see one car We always add one and make it two It don't matter why we like to add one and one Out here it's the thing to do Now some say that screaming one plus one all night Means we're thoughtless, cruel, and bad But kids like you and me baby, we were born to add

Yes, sir, we were!

As we keep on wandering we see two trash cans So we add one and make it three There's alot of us adders on the Jersey Shore Out here it's the thing to be Yeah, we'll keep on shoutin' one plus two Even though it makes 'em mad "cause kids like you and me baby, we were born to add

Baby we were born to add!

One and two and three police persons spring out of the shadows Down the corner comes one more
And we scream into that city night, three plus one makes four!
Well, they seemed to think we're disturbin' the peace
But we won't let 'em make us sad
"cause kids like you and me baby, we were born to add

Baby we were born to add! Baby we were born to add! Add! Add! Add! Baby we were born to add! Add! Add! Add! Baby we were born to add! Oh, Add Baby we were born to add! Baby we were born to add! Add, add, add, add, add!
