Sethian, Too Far Gone

I'm not the one to show you the way I'm not worth shedding a tear These arms will never give you what you're longing for

There's too many years between us There lies an ocean of pain Dark roads I hope you'll never have to walk

I'm Too Far Gone
These stories have no happy endings
So turn away
Before I tear your soul apart
I'm Too Far Gone
These stories have no happy endings
So turn away
Before I steal your dreams

Burnt by the everlasting sun I see no soothing rainfall But bitter tears holding the sweetness of blood

There's too many tears between us There lies an ocean of pain Scars I wish you'll never have to wear
