

Seven Day Faith, Forever And A Day

Your eyes make me feel like I'm alive
They make me feel like I've been had
By every person in my past
By anyone who made me laugh
You made a believer out of me
And now there's nothing I can't see
Whoa

Well, you'll make mistakes, but I'll be there forever, forever and a day
You'll make mistakes, but I'll be there forever, forever and a day

Your love is something better than I wished it's something better than I thought
Could ever happen in my life
Could ever make me feel so high
I love the way you touch your hair
I love the way I know you will always be here
Whoa

Well, you'll make mistakes, but I'll be there forever, forever and a day
You'll make mistakes, but I'll be there forever, forever and a day

Nights and days are memories we'll make,
keep close and lock away forever and
Nights and days are memories we'll make,
keep close and lock away forever and

You'll make mistakes, but I'll be there forever, forever and a day
You'll make mistakes, but I'll be there forever, forever and a day

We'll make mistakes, but we'll make it
Forever and a Day
We'll make mistakes, but we'll make it
Forever and a Day
And a Day
Forever and a Day
