

Sevendust, Prayer

I remember praying with you, yeah
I remember praying with you

Feeling alone
And I'm by myself
I can't find no one else
Thinking of you
Drives me crazy
I got a feeling I'm lazy
So much frustration
Built inside of me
Oh, it's killing me, Oh
What have I done to?
I can't lose you

Who do you pray to?

This is my prayer for you all

I stand all alone
Looking at my shoes
Making me think of you
Like my daddy said:
"Boy be brave, don't let them tell you no"
What can I do?
I think I'm losing you

This is my prayer for you all

I remember praying with you, yeah
I remember praying with you, oh yeah
You left me
You're gone You're gone You're gone You're gone
I remember praying with you
