

Sevenfold Image, Burden

Why do you walk around
Searching for so long
Trying to please yourself
How could you take so long,
To carry on, your burdens
are, there weighing me down,
Weighing me down

I've carried you for so long,
So now I'm thru with you
A burden you're, weighing me
Down, why can't I get to you?
Nothing else to choose.
Stop, weighing, me, down.

You're pieces fall to the Ground, as you stare in
The mirror, why do you
Play all these games?
Time's wasting, wasting Away.

I've tried so long
To walk along this Lonely cliff that's
Breaking, why do
You push me away,
Your pushing, you're pushing
Pushing me away
