

Shadow Warrior, Wind Of The Gods

Sun has set again, the engines on fire
Man & machine, the spark & the flame
Now as the one, the burning desire
Born together to raise up some hell

Under the sky, the wings to the sun
Fear not the death, it's just part of life
5 minutes to go, the airscrew is running
Let's do it again - to live is to die

Fly under crimson skies
Against the aces high
The rages of the hurricanes
We are the chosen ones
Warriors of sun
On zero's we ride
The wind of the gods

We closing the death in just a few words
Under the banners of glory and brave
The vengeance is falling like cherry tree leaf
I am pure anger, the scarlet hate!

Fly under crimson skies
Against the aces high
The rages of the hurricanes
We are the chosen ones
Warriors of sun
On zero's we ride
The wind of the gods

There is no fear to stop me!
There is no anger to stop me!
There is no love to stop me!
There is no death!

Fly under crimson skies
Against the aces high
The rages of the hurricanes
We are the chosen ones
Warriors of sun
On zero's we ride
The wind of the gods

Now I Burn!
