Shakespear's Sister, Excuse Me John

You could have been a docker You had it all Feather cut and muscles I hear you're a banker these days Well we took New York And wrapped it up in a silver shawl Yeah yeah yeah

You were always kicking in the exit door While I was saving pennies For the bus back home Coming down in the afternoon

Excuse me John
What are you on
Can you spare a bit for me
To carry on
Through today, 'til tonight
'Cos tomorrow's out of sight
Out of reach
Out of it, again

You carried off a billboard Twenty foot by ten And put it in your bedroom Now you can't get in So please wash your hands As you leave this century

Excuse me John
What are you on
Can you spare a bit for me
To carry on
Through today, 'til tonight
'Cos tomorrow's out of sight
Out of reach
Out of it, again

Yeah yeah yeah yeah

You know you want it You know you need it You know I need it too

Excuse me John
What are you on
Can you spare a bit for me
To carry on
Through today, 'til tonight
'Cos tomorrow's out of sight
Out of reach
Out of it, again
