

Shakira, I Am Here (Estoy Aqui)

I know you won't come back,
everything that was;
Time has left it behind.
I know that you won't return.
What happened between us
will never be repeated.
Even when a thousand years pass,
it won't be enough to fade you away
and to forget.
And now I'm here,
Trying to turn valleys into cities
Mixing the Sky with the Sea.
I know I let you escape,
I know I lost you
And nothing can be the same;
A millenium can reach
and still you won't fade away.
Chorus:
I'm still here, loving you,
suffocating,
in photographs and scrapbooks,
in objects and momentos.
I can't comprehend,
I'm driving myself mad.
Changing a foot for
my own face;
This night for a day.
And there's nothing I can do about it.
The letters I wrote,
I never sent.
You didn't want to know of me.
I can't understand how foolish I was;
It's all a matter of time and faith.
A millenium with another thousand years,
are enough to love you still (RepeatChorus)
If you still think something of me...
You know I'm still waiting for you...
(Repeat Chorus)
