

Shakira, I Want To Fly Away

I want to fly away from here
I want to pack my bags and disappear
I want to be free again don't know how, don't know when but oh when I get there I know I will its only fare I'll have seen the one and only place right for me and happy there I'll be. when things are just wrong and life's getting hard when you've got nothing left to lose when your jobs harsh with a low pay and your boyfriends treating you like crap you just want to fly away... just want leave this place, that'll be ace.
I want to fly away from here
I want to pack my bags and disappear
I want to be free again
don't know how, don't know when
but oh when I get there
I know I will its only fare
I'll have seen the one and only place right for me and happy there I'll be.
well finely on my way, what more can I say, left a note on the door said I don't leave here any more the smile finely back and all I know is that's that finely going, finely gone, I out of here away from terror!
I want to fly away from here
I want to pack my bags and disappear
I want to be free again
don't know how, don't know when
but oh when I get there
I know I will its only fare
I'll have seen the one and only place right for me
and happy there I'll be.
yeah, oh yeah, yahoo, finely there and I miss him the guy that treated me so bad going back to my humble home see you land of all my dreams, you were just perfect for me
I want to fly away from here
I want to pack my bags and disappear
I want to be free again
don't know how, don't know when
but oh when I get there
I know I will its only fare
I'll have seen the one and only place right for me and happy there I'll be.
