

Shanguy, Back To Life

looking for the sun soothing all the scars we gon' rise together from the dark

Thought it was a game now we got to pay
we don't even know what's on their demand

turning back the clock clock for what we had before we ain't gonna let it slide

we don't wanna let let go what they had is gone we will bring it back to life

for all the tears we dropped we'll find a way gettinf back way stronger we got no need to stop ort get astray
we can't wait no longer cause weveryday's another day we got nothing more to say what it's done delate it we gon rise from the dark we won;t ever fall apart that's our time

believe it

while turning back the clock clock for what we had before
