

Shania Twain, The Heart Is Blind

I hear the slamin' of the door
there you go again.
I can take it anymore
that's just the way it is. Ooh...
But then i listen' to my heart and the anger fade.
I wanna hold you never let you go away.

Bridge:
I feel a regain war inside,
about and between the heart and mind.
But love wins wwhen i close my eyes

Chorus:
The heart is blind,
It will not see.
When hope is gone,
the heart will still believe.
I see you go.
With tearful eyes.
But for the shape of love,
the heart is blind.

I know there's bein a lot of nights
when we couldn't sleep.
The words are like a knife,
they cut so deep. Ooh..
But when i listen to my heart
It's deeper than the pain.
I really love you,
that's all that matters anyway.

Bridge
Chorus

I'll always love you.
And hard times will only make us strong.
If we keep holdin' on.
