

Shanice Wilson, You Can Bounce

(Rashad Coes, Shanice Wilson)

Boy you're telling me you wanna leave
It's alright with me
Cause it's something going on that you don't know
I got someone else waiting for me
And this is gonna be easy
I knew that one day it was gonna end

I always needed a way out
Boy now I know what you're about
I've wasted so many year of my life
You can have everything else, I'm out

Hook
You can have the house
Here's the keys, you can have the car
I don't need you anymore
Take the diamonds and the furs
Not another word
I ain't coming back no more

Leaving behind all bad memories
So here take all your things
I don't need that negativity with me
You must have been reading my mind cause I
Finally opened up my eyes
You're doing me a favor, walking out my life, my life

I always needed a way out
Boy now I know what you're about
I've wasted so many years of my life
I'm not your fool anymore, I'm out, yeah, yeah

Hook

Bridge
You can have the house
You can bounce, you can bounce
You can bounce, you can bounce
You can bounce, you can bounce
You can bounce, you can bounce
You can have the house
You can bounce, you can bounce
I don't need you anymore
