

Sharon Corr, Full Circle

Hey
Did you ever feel like letting go
Did you ever feel like breaking out
Out beyond your comfort zone

Hey
Did a moment ever touch your soul
Or take you to that higher place
Up there where you're not alone

When all of the love in the world
Sparks out every nerve in you
And you couldn't stop it now
Even if you wanted to

Cuz you've come full circle
Look at you now
Yeah you've come full circle
Done it somehow
And you're living for the moment
Yeah you're living for the moment
Right now

Hey
I could see it when you closed your eyes
Your broken dreams not realised
You didn't know that you could try
