And lust you gave up on a real bro. with
Understanding and trust ain't no comparison
You leave all the rest behind you blow my mind
Undercover when you workin' my shine
You lay pipes for like anyother plumber took a day
And night you can't be commin'

Things you do but the bigger was i so better sl 500

Diamonds letters fell you broker say the sugar for
You keep the vanise running droppin'
Off keys and came cool.
