Shyne, The Hit

[Shyne]

Look at this nigga, stuntin in front of Justin's, actin silly If it wasn't cops all over, I'd smack him with this milli

You hoe niggaz move a brick and think they rich

Get a few guns and a click and wanna take over shit Ain't that the same kid that shot Reg in the head?

Turned him into a carrot, he might as well have been dead

Just came home from doin ten up in the Feds

Be extortin kingpins for they horse and they bread

Had the whole Brooklyn under pressure, I'm surprised he ain't test ya

Mad niggaz know better

I ain't comin up offa, no cheddar, no bricks, no nothin

I'll kick that motherfucker, FUCK HIM, yeah I'll pay him somethin

Pay his ass a visit, blow his brains on the sidewalk

Let him collect his thoughts..

.. I'm the strongest force in New York til I'm a corpse, and even then, I'll be buried with bricks and money-filled vaults, seventeen shots and two weeks later

I'm in the spot, takin it light

Watchin the Tyson fight it's packed, uh with killers and rats

Dope dealers, money hungry bitches, malicious

Cars pilin up the block for blocks nigga, Bentleys and 6's

This the place to be, where all the - gangsters meet

As I pick up my drink, I see my man Fat Pete

But before I could walk over, two niggaz tapped him on the shoulder and unloaded in his face, bullets flyin all over the place

Mirrors shatterin, people scatterin, his bodyguards shot back Missed one but hit the other, in the abdomen, they both fled

But who the fuck would do somethin so - brazen and reckless?

Had to be some niggaz tryin to send a message {*phone ringing*}

Next day I got a call from uptown to, come have a meetin with The Council bout the shit that's been goin down

Word is, same kid that killed Fat Pete shot Reg in the head

Bottom line he's out of control, he got to be dead

He's startin to be a real problem

Extortin niggaz, Brooklyn through Harlem

But he fucked around and crossed the margin, touched one of ours

He got to go, he from your hood, handle it Poe

Say no mo', I'm out the do'

Went back to the spot to grab the guns

Semi-auto check, AK-40 check, shotgun check, revolver - that's perfect

Called Tiz and told him meet me in an hour

Bring the caravan, you know the plan

Ski-masks and stockings, seen him down the ave. boppin

Him and a friend, just hopped in a Benz

Twenty inches on the rims, let's follow 'em slow, keep 'em in sight

Wait til he stop at a red light, then roll the window down and kiss them bitches goodnight - they musta saw somethin cause the Benz busted U and came at us firin shots

I threw the revolver, grabbed the tec and left the driver's side wet

The Benz ran in a store window and got wrecked

I hopped out the van, ran up to the scene, still holdin the tec

One nigga's body was split in half, the other nigga still movin

Heard sirens comin closer, as I'm bout to shoot him

But fuck it, I opened his mouth, and let the tec sprav and told him tell Satan I'm on my way - die bitch
