

Sia, Pictures

You have her pictures
You have her pictures
You have her pictures
Everywhere

You're covered in stitches
You're covered in stitches
You think I can't see them
But I know they're there

Take her down from the wall
Let yourself fall
You can keep her frozen
Dormant at your core
You can try to move on
Tripped by stitches come undone

You lost your big heart
You lost your big heart
You lost your big heart
Beating bare

She gave you a new start
She gave you a new start
But you knew you'd lost her to despair

Take her down from the wall
Let yourself fall
You can keep her frozen
Dormant at your core
You can try to move on
Tripped by stitches come undone

Your skin burns and prickles
Your skin burns and prickles
Your skin burns and prickles
When she's near

You try to play it cool
You try to play it cool
You try to play it cool
But you're filled with fear

Take her down from the wall
Let yourself fall
You can keep her frozen
Dormant at your core
You can try to move on
Tripped by stitches come undone

Take her down from the wall
Let her go
Make her yours
You can keep her frozen
Dormant at your core
You can try to move on
Tripped by stitches come undone
Tripped by stitches come undone
You can try to move on
Or maybe she is the one?
