

Sicko, Mom

She's got eyes in the back of her head and while you'll never find a page of the books she hasn't read she says she's got her eyes on me knows what I'm going to be

She's my mother, bore my brother
I am her son Love thy mother like no other bear the weight of the son

She's got a slice of the half moon caught in her eye
