

Sicko, The Inland Empire Strikes Back

Woke up today thinking about my hometown thought about going back to see who's hanging around remember back when we didn't have a clue and how we used to sit and whine that there was nothing to do

Way too young to understand you've got to make it what you want part of me is still Spokane that's never gotten off the track just waiting for The Inland Empire Strikes Back

Mna Mna, Vampire Lezbos, and T.F.L. whatever happened to those clowns I think they ended up in jail But there's no shortage of bands to get drunk for There'll always be the Fumes and Flies kicking out Spokanimalcore
