

Silent Saga, Immortal

Look behind the mask of this broken man, and try and guess the woes that have made him sad
All the vile deeds, blend their mournful weeds, Now I'm lost in this cryptical love...

When this sweet thrills arise and I dive in you eyes,
I drown yet I feel so immortal,
hot blood burns my face I feel fallen from grace...
My soul flies in heaven tonight

Fate has always healed me up like a nurse, but everything shall pass with an ending verse.
All between the earth and sky,
Will have it's time to die and even keen love that's deep and divine...

Beats so hard that it aches my heart hides no mistakes,
guarding this dark love immortal,
I feel lust, I feel pain, wishful dreams in the rain,
my heart cries for your love tonight!

When this sweet thrills arise and I dive in you eyes,
I drown yet I feel so immortal,
hot blood burns my face I feel fallen from grace...
My soul flies in heaven tonight

Beats so hard that it aches my heart hides no mistakes,
guarding this dark love immortal,
I feel lust, I feel pain, wishful dreams in the rain,
my heart cries for your love tonight!
