Silk City (Diplo, Mark Ronson), New Love (ft. Ellie

Think i forget my breathe did you forget my name? I wrote your symphonies They all just sound the same Don't know what i believe in Cause i just kept moving on Said i should take a seat I know where i came from

I got new love, love in me I got new love, love in me I got new love, love in me I got new love, love in me

I got new love, I got new love in me I got new love, I got new love in me I got new love, I got new love in me I got new love, I got new love in me I got new love, I got new love in me

Didn't always like myslef Didn't always get it right Though i was someone else And hat's the girl you liked Don't know what i believe in Cause i just kept moving on Said i should take a seat I know where i came from

I got new love, love in me I got new love, love in me I got new love, love in me I got new love

If you could see me now
I got a feeling you'd be dancing next to me
I am on my own
But i could never be lonely
I got a new love in me now
Get electricity in every bone ilike
Now i am overthinking taht i am not who i should be
I got a new love in me now

I got new love, I got new love in me I got new love, I got new love in me I got new love, I got new love in me I got new love, I got new love in me I got new love, I got new love in me

Now Get electricity in every bone ilike
Now i am overthinking taht i am not who i should be
I got a new love in me now
I got new love, love in me
I got new love
