

Silkstone, Can You Hear Me

My heart's on the run, don't think anyone feels the way I do now Running wild, don't need anyone telling me to touch ground
Her blue eye, wish for nothing more than to have her by my side
If only I can make her stay, this time I know it feels right

I don't wanna live without her, oh no
I don't wanna live without her, oh no

Yeah, yeah
Can you hear me when i say
Yeah, yeah

My heart's open wide, don't think anyone needs her like I do now Butterflies try to tell me that she's the one I'm all about

There's no right or wrong but I'm sure that I can Make her feel the way I think she should There's no weak or strong and I'm sure she'll be mine
If she would only care
Cause I am who I am and she's all that I want Wherever she's I'll be, yeah!
