Simon Says, Hey You

Hey you Ill make you an offer a million starving men Could not refuse
Hey You I can read your smack rotted mind
Your thoughts are warning you it's all
Too good to be true
Hey you just let me in I'll bury the pain erase
The shame make it go away
Hey you I'll give you the life of your dreams
I'll fulfill every fantasy

Tastes so sweet and then I'll feed underneath the skin I'll break down every fucking living cell in your body

Hey you I left you without a trace Can't stand your pathetic disgrace of a face I stole every piece of your purest intention Hey you I left you without a trace Can't stand your pathetic disgrace of a face I stole every piece of your purest intention Now I'm done

I live inside these walls of every mind I spread I crawl I feed and I kill

I'll kill you too Kill your lies Kill you first

You can't hurt me Can't beat me Can't deceive

Hey you I left you without a trace Can't stand your pathetic disgrace of a face I stole every piece of your purest intention Hey you I left you without a trace Can't stand your pathetic disgrace of a face I stole every piece of your purest intention Hey you I left you without a trace Can't stand your pathetic disgrace of a face I stole every piece of your purest intention
