Sinner, Hand Of The Saint

blood shot - evil eyes a black robe covered his lies tangeld in extreme caress the last confess standing in the crossroads going down the line keeping up the feelings send a sign

does it makes a bigger difference who's the sinner who's the saint father forgive me - help me give me more to complain the hand of the saint

i never thought i 'll break the spell endless circles i hear the bell i look the left and to the right the holy man was out of sight
