Sinner, Some Truth (Has Better Left Unknown)

(Sinner)

Remember times we're acting wild Our pulse was beating tight We have an aim, we could believe You exposed a brand new side You're only live to criticize I have to face reality

The innocence's gone Your roses ... faded for too long

(Chorus 1:)
Some truth has better left unknown
Some dreams will never die
Two hearts will be facing the truth
Beating to survive
A secret to keep (2)

The single touch was like a spark And it opened up my heart... That there are some other ways I have to leave this twisted road... For reasons better left untold As the naked truth comes walking in

Well, my soul is caged Sweet devil behind a pretty face

(Chorus)

The single touch was like a spark And it opened up my heart... That there are some other ways

The innocence's gone Your roses ... faded for too long

(Chorus 2:)
Some truth has better left unknown
Some dreams will never die
Two hearts will be facing the truth
Beating to survive

(Chorus 2)

Some truth has better left unknown (2)
