

Sister Hazel, Superman

One night--One town
Well there's just one man
And he throws his bag down
Then he runs away
Just as fast as he can
And then he falls to the ground
And he waits....

For Superman--Here I am
Superman--Here I am
Superman--Here I am
Superman.

Another night--Another town
Well there's just one girl
She's lookin' all around
And then she cries out loud
Just as loud as she can
Then she falls to the ground
And she waits.
[Chorus]

Another night--Another town
We'll there's just one train
She's full and loaded down
She sputters once.....!
And says I think I can
(I think I can--I think I can--I think I can--I think I can)
And as they slide down the hill
Well they wait
[Chorus-Chorus]
