

Six Feet Under, Zombie Blood Curse

I am alive and now undead
The walking terror is unleashed
Your slow death is just what I'll reap
The guts begin to bleed

Zombie blood curse

These are events that can't be stopped
They have been stalking you for years
The blood that run through dead corpse
Is black as night

From the grave, the shadow of death
The peril inside, alive and decayed
The rotten now will rise
The dead come to life

All your desperate thoughts
All your helpless pleas
All your dying screams
All your fucking pain

With all my inner hate
You will die!

This is a curse that can't be stopped
It has been haunting you for years
The blood that runs through my dead bones
Is black as night, black as night

The shadow of death
The devil inside
Black as night
The rotten now will rise
The dead come to life

All your desperate thoughts
All your helpless pleas
All your dying screams
All your fucking pain
All I really crave
With all my inner hate
With all my buried rage
With all my buried rage
You will die!

You can't kill what has no heartbeat left inside
A severed dream now fades away
Black as night now dead in the bright of daylight

I am alive and now undead
The walking terror is unleashed
Your slow death is just what I'll reap
Zombie blood curse

I am the curse that can't be stopped
I have been warning you for years
The blood that runs through my dead heart
Is black as night

All your desert hearts

All I really crave
With all my inner hate
You will die!
