

Skeeter Davis, I'm Your Woman

When you just walk by me ever so casually oh how I want to be just your woman
Just a touch of your lips and my heart jumps and skips
At your slight fingertips I'm your woman
If you ever hold me in your arms real tight
For a moment I'll feel wrong to be feeling so right
And if you ever kiss me a hungry goodnight
I'll be too weak to fight I'm your woman
[ steel ]
If you ever hold me...
