

Sketch, Standing On My Own

This moment never dying
My life isn't passing me
This moment will forget you
You can't stop this change
I'm finally free
I'm finally free

This is the day where everything must change
All the confusion has brought me to my knees
My soul is finally alive
I'm standing on my own
I'm standing on my own

Don't take me out of my time
Give me this moment now
You've been a friend, now you are my foe
Don't take this moment, not when I gave you your's

This is the day where everything must change
All the confusion has brought me to my knees
My soul is finally alive
I'm standing on my own
I'm standing on my own

This moment never dying
My life isn't passing me
This moment will forget you
You can't stop this change
I'm finally free
I'm finally free

I'm finally free
I'm finally free
I'm finally free
I'm finally free
I'm finally free

I will fly away tonight
I will fly away tonight
