

Skillet, Save Me

this is the place that no one sees I don't like to show
I can't help it
this is the darkness over me it's just the world
I can't help it

reachin for the light
reachon from inside
help me tonight

I am closer rto the edge tonight
I am steandin' on the ledge so why won't you reach out your hand to save, to save tonight

I am damage if you dare tonight it feels like no one cares, so why can I come up for air
to save, just save me tonight what are you waitin' for?
someone save me

peel back the skin exposed to you take pleasure in the pain tell me what I am supposed to do it aiin't easy to open up this way

I am closer rto the edge tonight
